Nathaniel: My greetings to you, my brothers and sisters, I am Nathaniel.

I should like to spend a few moments with you and make a few remarks regarding the times that you find yourself in. I will not take but a few moments of your time,

You find yourselves in a very rapidly changing time. Sometimes it is going to be difficult for you to really realize the great changes that are taking place about you.

The old is being dissolved gradually and corruption of those who would yield power is being revealed. They are fighting their last battle, they have had their day. I do not mean by that, that all of this is going to end in a few days or weeks. But gradually these things are being absorbed and the new is taking its place.

So, my friends, expect big changes in the future. Be prepared to accept the new and to be able to let go of the old, for through this transition you are coming in to a whole new way of life. Eventually everything about you, everything that you experience is going to be new. Your old religions are going to fade away and the new teachings of Truth will replace them.

In the times to come you will no longer pray to someone to forgive and to absorb your sins, as you call them, nor to bring about improvements in your life and to give you this or to give you that, for you will be taught that the responsibility lies not in someone else but within you. You must make your own life, you must write your own wrongs. You will learn that no one can do this for you. You will learn, know and realize that you live by the law of retribution and that whatsoever comes to you is that which you have created.

You will learn the importance of your own thoughts and actions, how this can and does affect your tomorrow, that today you are creating your tomorrow. Therefore, your thoughts and actions must be such as to bring about a tomorrow that you will be proud of.

The day of reckoning is close at hand. It has appeared to many that there is no justice, for they look around them and they see today and in the past, how those who have broken all the laws of humanity have not received what you would term to be their just dues. But fear not, my friends, the day is close at hand when justice will be meted out to each and every one when his Book of Life will pass before him in picture form and he shall see and he shall hear and he shall understand why the judgment is being meted out to him as it is.

Many through this judgment period will realize the errors of their ways and will begin to make restitutions and eventually will pull themselves out of the pit and into the Light. Many will not. But this is the choice of the individual and each individual has the right to make that choice. He can choose his path. He can either follow the path of construction or the path of destruction.

Those who follow the path of construction will eventually find themselves growing into the Light and raising themselves up to where they can join those who have already proceeded into the new path of justice for all. Into an atmosphere of brotherly love where the concern is not for me or for my particular group, but rather for all concerned and for what is best for all. All decisions must be made upon this basis if a society is to succeed. There can be no class distinction, there can be no race distinction but all must work for all.

Each must carry his or her load for nothing is gained that is not earned. There is nothing in creation that is for free, nothing. Everything must be earned. Those who think that they can enter the Kingdom through the efforts of others, or that they can buy their way into the Kingdom by paying the priest to pray for them to have their sins forgiven, are not going to find their way. Everything must be earned by each individual by his own efforts. There is no other way, each must pay his debts. If you have created a karmic debt to someone, you are the only one who can repay that debt. No one else can do it for you. No great Master can take your responsibility nor will he, for he knows full well that you must handle your own.

For those who choose to put their feet upon the Path and work diligently, often some of their karmic debts are delayed for periods of time to give them a chance to become better able to pay these debts, to gain a better understanding of why this is necessary. When they have gained the knowledge of their responsibilities, they can then repay this debt much quicker and more easily than they could have done had they not had the proper understanding.

You have much, my friends, to look forward to. There are going to be great sacrifices that will have to be made yet there are going to be great rewards for those who have earned them. All will not be lost. But in this transition period it will be necessary for those who walk in the Light to be better prepared to handle themselves in these situations than will be those who have sought the darkness.

So, my friends, keep ever in the Light. Try each day to become stronger, more efficient. Try to gain more understanding and above all, learn self-control, for without self-control, without being master of self, you will find it very difficult to meet these situations.

You must, if you are to be strong and be acceptable on the Path, you must learn to control that lower self, the emotional self for without this, you are weak. I have said enough.

May each of you, as you go forth on your journey of life, grow stronger day-by-day in Light and realize that for every step you take forward, every accomplishment that you make, the Great Ones are sending you more and more energy. But you can only absorb according to your own ability to do so. Lack of self-control reduces your ability.

Go in peace, my friends. May you walk in peace.
Peace, peace, peace. ❀
