

Caveat: These communications are informative teaching instructions for those who seek to increase their understanding of themselves and the magnitude of the future lying before us all. These lectures are not of a religious nature but rather deal with the science of human potential and evolution. This document is a direct transcription from the original recording. Although it has been checked for obvious errors, it has not been finally edited.

Joseph: My beloved children, I am Joseph.

I am only going to take a very few moments of your time, since it is the time of your year when greetings and blessings seem to be popular with your people.

We who have been working through Center R, as you are known to us, and through this instrument, all of us from our Brotherhood, wish to extend our most sincere blessings to all of those who have passed in and out of this Center. And to all of those who have been associated and to those who are now present, we pour forth our love and our blessings.

Our love for you all is a love which you not yet know. Our concern for you is much deeper than you can know or realize. We want only for you that which is for your highest good, that which will make you strong in His love. We attempt in every way we can to help you attain these goals. We realize that sometimes you may feel that we have deserted you but we have not. But we must do that which will make you strong for the path of Truth requires strong hearts and strong minds.

So tonight, we leave our blessings with you and we extend our love and our Joy to you. May all of you find great, peace in your hearts, and may this Christ Child grow to maturity in your hearts.

We wish to extend our gratitude to all of you who have passed this way, for allowing us to be of some service to you.

To this instrument, who has given many years of service by allowing us to use him in this manner, we extend our gratitude. And to his mate who has served beside him for these many years, we also extend our love and our gratitude.

One, whose birth you celebrate will again be returning to your planet. How soon this will take place will depend upon the Light workers of planet Earth—how soon they can prepare the way, for He cannot return until the way has been made clear.

Peace, my beloved friends, peace. Go in peace and may peace be with you. ❀
