Yaum: Greetings to you, my friends. It is once more my privilege to come among you. I wish to extend my love and my greetings to each of you and to my old friend here. I wish to say it gives me great pleasure to again be in your presence.

My friends, each of you are seeking on the path of truth attempting, as you tread this path, to be of some service to your fellow man and, I know that each of you are going to do your best to accomplish that which is in your pattern. There are going to be many in the near future who are called upon to do service in various ways and how you respond to these calls will determine how much greater opportunities you will be given to serve.

Many will be called to leave their homes many times and go to other areas to do certain service, to carry certain messages, and to lead others to find their way, or their path of service, or to encourage them in stepping out into their calling, so to speak. If you find that you are called to do something of this nature, or to go upon a mission. Go forth in faith knowing that the way will be provided. Do not let your ego or your pride stand in your way. Receive and accept the help that is offered you upon the way in the way of food, lodging, what have you. And especially, you should mingle and dwell with those who are in harmony with your cause. Many times the disciples of Christ have gone forth without purse, without food, and with only the clothing that was on their person, but they were provided for very royally, very well, and their needs were all met. For they carried out their mission in faith, knowing that in his service there can be no lack, you see.

So my friends, when the call comes to you, do not hesitate to go forth. And those of you here and many others, will find the call coming from time to time. It may be only a small mission, it may be within your own neighborhood, within your own city, but it also may be in an area some distance. But what so ever it may be, go forth and carry out your mission as you are guided to do.

Now, there will be those in other realms of life who will be helping you and guiding you, who will be influencing you to do certain things. So develop your awareness so that you will know when you are being guided to carry out a mission. It may be, or seem to be, one of a very minor nature but be not concerned about this, for he who serves well in minor tasks will find himself serving in greater tasks. And what so ever your tasks may be, though it be ever so humble, do it and do it well. Let not your pride or your ego enter in. Go forth with no thought of self but only a thought of service. Service to your Creator, for the slightest service that you can perform is performed for your Creator.

Now my friends, I shall be glad to spend a little more time with you if you would care to have a friendly chat. If you have some questions that I can answer for you I shall be glad to share my understanding or if you have something that you would like to share with me I shall be happy to have you share your bits of wisdom with me.

Questioner: Would you define the meaning of Brotherhood and give us the number of Brotherhoods and the types of work that they do?

Yaum: To go into this very extensively would, take much more time than we have here, but I will say this. There are a number of Brotherhoods upon your earth. They are called Brotherhoods; they are occult schools and mystical schools, and there is a brotherhood there. Brotherhood denotes a oneness, you see, a oneness of purpose. So you could yourself form a Brotherhood if you wished to establish a teaching of some kind and draw enough around you who are dedicated to this teaching and could enter into an a oneness, you see. A very close a oneness of understanding and development. Brotherhood is a terminology and can be applied to a number of associations. And then there are in the high realms of life also Brotherhoods.

On various levels of life, you see. Mostly, these brotherhoods are developed for a purpose of service and have a definite task to perform. They have charge of certain types of development, you might say. Sometimes they are referred to as Rays, certain Rays you see. And there is a Brotherhood with a chain of command which control this particular Ray. I believe you have read, have you not, of the various Rays? So this is the type of thing you are speaking of. And then there is what we refer to as the Great Silent Brotherhood, who are beings of great understanding, great light, who, you might say, rule the Universes. And here again you find a chain of command. There is a certain group in charge of this galaxy or solar system etc. with a head branching out from other realms. Similar to your governments, you have a President, a Congress etc.. Do you get a slight picture? To explain all of the different Brotherhoods and their activities would take a great deal of time and some of them I myself, perhaps am not too familiar with.

Questioner: Is there a new cycle coming or beginning where renewed activity will begin on a widespread manner?

Yaum: Yes, this will increase now. There has been a sort of leveling off for some time. Now you are going to find the trend upward again and you are going to find more and more ways of service and being called upon more. You will notice this, it will be very apparent to all of you in the near future.

Questioner: Will we have any trouble recognizing the call?

Yaum: No, I do not believe so. Many times it will come from another source. You will be asked to do something and other times it will come in various ways.

Questioner: Is this couple here new acquaintances to you?

Yaum: I have known of them for some time. Before you met them. I am aware of many, many people.

Questioner: We would like to know where you are and what you are doing?

Yaum: I am still in the same place and expect to be for some time. Although, all my service does not take place there, but all of that in the physical takes place there. But I serve in many places outside of the physical realm, as I am doing now and in other ways. This would take too long to go into and would not be of great interest to you anyhow.

Questioner: Could you tell us more of the status quo at this time from your viewpoint?

Yaum: Yes, but we will go into that at another time.

Now my friends. It is time to vacate this instrument. To you, and to all of those of whom you have spoken, I extend my most sincere blessings, my love and my understanding. And I ask all of the great ones, those of the Silent Brotherhood, to pour forth their blessings upon each of you that you may receive the great peace and joy that is your to have.

Peace be with you my friends, Peace, Peace. ✨
