

Caveat: These communications are informative teaching instructions for those who seek to increase their understanding of themselves and the magnitude of the future lying before us all. These lectures are not of a religious nature but rather deal with the science of human potential and evolution. This document is a direct transcription from the original recording. Although it has been checked for obvious errors, it has not been finally edited.

Samuel: Greetings to you, my children, I am Samuel.

What you have been studying today is very, very important in your process of evolution. Until these aspects are at least partially conquered, your evolution will be very slow. It is difficult to look at oneself and realize how much fear one has to deal with, how many aspects of fear. The same is true of sensuousness, sex drive and vanity.

But all of these things are in all of us and we must control and conquer these things. We must examine each one very carefully and honestly to make an evaluation of what is necessary for us to do. You will not conquer any of them in their fullness in a short time, but with persistence it will be done.

Above all develop your power of will, for without awakening the will you will have very little success in mastering these other four natures that you find within yourself. So awaken that will and make it strong so that you can say, "I see what must be done and I will do it. I will that I do it. My will is strong, it is awake. I will put it to work to conquer the weaknesses of my lower self."

It is not an impossible task but neither is it an easy task. It will require work and the help of the will. You must will to do it, and as each little aspect of these is conquered the next will be just a little bit easier. For each time that will is exerted, it becomes just a little bit stronger and soon it will come to the point where it will be in full control. Then you can truthfully say, "I am the master, I am that I AM," and that "I AM," is the master of my ship and it shall be guided in the right direction.

Troubled waters will not hold me back. I will bring my ship to port in top condition, ready to meet any challenge that may confront me, for my will is strong and masterful, yet it is humble and compassionate.

Yes, my friends, you can reach this port if you desire, and I'm sure that all of you do desire to do this, therefore you will become the master. You will make your will strong by awakening it and using it day-by-day so that its strength will grow.

I leave you, my friends, by extending to each of you my love and my blessings, my peace. I ask that all the Great Ones pour forth their blessings upon you that your progress may be rapid.

Peace, beloved friends, peace, peace. ♣
