

Caveat: These communications are informative teaching instructions for those who seek to increase their understanding of themselves and the magnitude of the future lying before us all. These lectures are not of a religious nature but rather deal with the science of human potential and evolution. This document is a direct transcription from the original recording. Although it has been checked for obvious errors, it has not been finally edited.

Questioner: Will you explain about what is meant by “being touched by this River of Light will bring great understanding, wisdom and enlightenment?”

Teacher: This is nothing more than receiving the knowledge, the understanding and this can come in various degrees. Whether or not you retain even a degree of which you have received, will depend upon you—how you respond, how you live, how you react to it. What you call a “conversion” is, in most cases, a realization of what life is about. Enough has been received, perhaps, to make one desire to dedicate their life to God. But how they go on from there is important. Many fall by the wayside, more do than do not.

Questioner: Were some of the conversions written about in the “Cross and the Switchblade,” earned in a previous lifetime?

Teacher: Someone else was responsible for bringing this experience to them, but they only have received a degree of this, just a small degree—enough to affect their lives.

Questioner: I would like to find someone who could bring this experience to me.

Teacher: Have you believed enough? Do you really believe or are you wishfully thinking or hoping that it will happen? If so, then do something about it. Follow the commandments:

Do you really love your neighbor, do you pray for those who spitefully use you, do you judge not? He who knows these things and does them not, is held much more accountable than he who knows not. What is sin for one man is not sin for another.

(Excerpt of comments about the Earth, Moon and North Pole.)

Teacher: Earth is hollow. Moon is used as a base by other planets. There is an opening at the North Pole.

It is my privilege and pleasure if I have been of any help to you. That is part of my service to mankind. I only hope that I can be of greater service to you and to others in helping them to attain to a greater life.

Now, beloved ones, I must depart from this instrument.

May the blessings, peace, love, the understanding of all the great, great Masters throughout eternity extend to you and yours their blessings, their love and their understanding. And may they, in their way, bring each of you closer to the day when you shall be touched by this Breath and when you are, may you receive it to such an extent that it will bring you an understanding where you can attain mastership over self, for until self has been mastered you are not a Master.

Peace be with you, my friends, peace, peace, peace. ☸
