Yaum: Greetings to you my friends. Once more it is my great pleasure to come among my dear friends. I should like to extend my greetings to our new friends here and to express to them my great pleasure in coming into their presence.

Questioner: Thank you. It is our pleasure.

Yaum: It is always a great pleasure to meet new friends who are seeking truth and understanding. So now my friends, what shall we talk about?

Questioner: You were speaking of truth, we want to know-how we could serve better in the world to help others?

Yaum: My dear friends, first I should like to apologize for my very poor English, I hope you shall be able to follow my conversation without too much difficulty. And I should like to say also that anything that I say to you is my understanding, is my Truth and because it is my Truth, you do not have to accept it as your Truth, please, you understand? I do not try to force my Truth upon anyone, I merely share with you my understanding as I hope you shall do with me, because you see my friends, many times great pearls of wisdom coming from friends whom I meet in this way and I should like to say that we all oftentimes find great pearls of wisdom where we least expect them, sometimes in what we consider as very lowly places.

Now, my friends, to return to your question, I should say that one can serve his humanity in no greater way than by living and demonstrating the truth that he knows, the truth that is to the fullest of one's understanding at the time, because you see, my friends, I do not believe that we can extend to others our understanding and truth until we are able to demonstrate it ourselves by our own living. In other words, we let our own light shine forth, you see, and this attracts others to us in many ways. Have you not met those who radiate forth their truth, their understanding, stands out from forever and ever their being, is this not so, my friends? This is in my way of thinking, the true way to serve for as we do this, great opportunities come to us to help with this, they come to us seeking and in our humble way we can then serve them. Does this answer your question, my dear?

Questioner: Yes.

Yaum: Have I made myself clear?

Questioner: Yes. Thank you.

Questioner: Sir, are you familiar with the teachings that have been given out through the Church of St. Michael?

Yaum: I have not followed your particular organization of which you speak. I am not at the moment, shall I say, completely familiar with your teachings. You see, my friends, there are many, many organizations and churches or whatever you may call them throughout the world, and it would be impossible for me to be completely familiar with all of these.

Questioner: I just wondered if you were familiar with these, particularly with the three lower concepts of the man?

Yaum: You are being taught the Polynesian version of the Huna, I am familiar with this technique, or this teaching and I have very high regards for it, and it is as other techniques are, it has its, shall we say, positive and negative side, or the laws which are being taught are of such a cosmic nature that they can be used in the positive or negative way as is true with all great teachings, great truth.

Now this my friends, is one of the secret teachings that have been handed down and hasn't been, not put into writing in any way, the true secrets of this. I believe it is known to you here as the Huna, huna, huna? As you see, I have trouble with some of your words. And this is one of the great secret teachings which has come down through time by the Masters, you see. It has not been put into writing and this is true of many of the secret, shall we say, organizations or—I'm not able to find the word in your language—could say teachings, yes, that have come down in this manner, and of course, this is one of the mystic teachings and as there have been many others that have come down through other mystic schools, you see, which in reality are all one and the same. Perhaps due to the Masters that are—that have come down through—have different wordings or different terminologies—yes, that's a good word for me learn, huh? It comes down to the same point, you see. But this truth, the true teachings of these, any of these great secrets, as they come down through time have been taught from one generation to another by word of mouth and demonstration, you see, teaching the techniques, so to speak, etc.

Questioner: You think this particular technique is in its true form, do you know?

Yaum: The true Polynesian technique by the true Masters who possess it, it is. There are some of these teachings which have been leaked out and been worked upon by others which have only part of the teachings, you see, and they have tried, out of the small knowledge that they have of it, to make a teaching of their own, claiming that they have the whole secret, but they do not. The true teachings that have come down are in the hands of a very few well trusted Masters, so to speak. And I should like to elaborate upon this a little more if you will be patient with me. This is what has happened in many cases where people are found to be using these laws in a negative manner, you see, to gain power for themselves. They have, they have learned to master at least some of the law, you see, and they have found that it works and that they can use it also for self-interest, you see, as to gain power over others.

You see, Earthman, in his evolution, has been very eager for power, you see. He likes to be a big, big man, have power over other people, you see, and if he can find something like this which will enable him to do this he has inflated his ego, you see, he's a great man, you see. So, eventually, though, he is destroyed by the law itself, you see, because any of the laws of the Universe which are used in this manner, eventually will destroy man himself, and this, of course, has happened in many cases and also, it can destroy whole nations you see as happened in Atlantis and Lemuria. This was entirely a matter of the leaders of the time or the greater people, so to speak, mastering many of these laws, and then gradually beginning to use them for selfish purposes, to enslave others, you see, and to gain power. And eventually, you see, this brings ruin upon the people as a whole, will destroy entire nations. So there are various secret, I use the word organizations for lack of a better word. I do not think this expresses quite properly, but there are many that have these secrets, although they may be expressed in different terminologies—they all are one and the same, really, you see.

Questioner: You have told us that Huna was one of the many techniques, one of the many paths to Truth, right?

Yaum: This is so.

Questioner: And it is a matter of keeping the subconscious or whatever you wish to call it, on the same basis of Truth if I understood you?

Yaum: Yes, you see, my friends, there can really only be one law which controls one specific action or reaction in the Universe which affects certain things. For instance, I might use as example there are laws which control the orbiting of the planets, rotations, etc., the orbits around the sun. These are certain fixed laws. They might be explained in different terminologies, you see, by different schools of thought but it must come down to one understanding eventually or they all reach the same of point of understanding, you see. This is true in all laws, of course. There can be only one law governing a certain situation, you see. But there may be various ways of learning how this law functions, different terminologies.

Questioner: Does this answer your question, (name)?

Questioner: Yes, I was just wondering if he was familiar with the concept that he would know what we meant if this is in fact correct that there is a subconscious, or a lower self, or whatever you want to call it, that the basic concept of the three selves that we are learning, if this is correct, to your understanding?

Yaum: Man, in my understanding, is a threefold being, definitely so! Now the name that you give to these three parts of man may vary as we say. Some call it low, middle, high self; some call it subconscious, conscious and superconscious. This, in my understanding, is not too important, but the important part is to know the function of the three parts of man and how to bring them into harmony.

Man is perhaps far more complex than we are able to conceive at this present level of understanding, as is the Ultimate and what you call God. But Man must climb the ladder of evolution, of understanding, rung by rung and if you attempt to skip too many rungs you only get into trouble and then you must come back down to this one and start over, you see. So, we go step by step. And as we sincerely search, we find ourselves being brought into the right situations, the right opportunities at the right time to gather the understanding that we are capable of handling at the time. But truth in itself is ever-expanding. Not that it is changing in reality but it is expanding for each individual, as he goes and climbs step by step. He increases or opens his consciousness. Truth is a state of consciousness and your truth today is just what you can conceive of today, you see; tomorrow you may be able to conceive of more and be able to receive more Truth.

Questioner: Yaum, may I say something? If you please, I don't usually ask you know.

Yaum: I am waiting.

Questioner: O.K. I just want you to be sure to get the understanding of it. I did want to say that, as you probably very well know, that after these two long years that I have complained, and I finally can see that it has been a golden opportunity in which I neglected to learn to know and understand Clyde as you did and I just wanted to verbalize this because I wanted to get that on tape, on the record, but I really am beginning to appreciate how the times that you sat in being here and giving the opportunities of understanding Clyde as you have told me to and so on, but we really are becoming into a harmonious relationship. Aren't you glad too?

Yaum: It pleases me to hear this and as I believe I mentioned to you before, things are still right for you. Your moving in the right direction and nothing has happened without purpose.

Questioner: But I didn't see it for a good time.

Yaum: It often takes time for us to see and realize the purpose of certain experiences and certain situations that we find ourselves in.

Questioner: Are you still in Pakistan?

Yaum: No, I am not.

Questioner: Oh, you get about and you never tell me where you are either unless I ask?

Yaum: At the moment there is no secret to where I am. At the moment, I am working in China. There is a great work, a great need there.

Questioner: I wonder if our guests would be interested if they have no further points? Is there anything you would want to ask?

Questioner: I just wanted to ask if he could help me. We were talking earlier about reincarnation, at least I was, as were so many others, asking if the soul could be reincarnated in another body before their body, what we call dead, had died. Do you understand my question?

Yaum: Yes, I understand your question, but I do not see how this would be possible in my understanding, for what you call the soul is attached, and the body must be attached to a soul to function, in my knowledge, so once the cord of attachment is broken, the physical body ceases to exist so far as life is concerned.

Questioner: Could one of the three selves leave or is this impossible? The lower or middle self, could leave?

Yaum: Not in my knowledge because they are both necessary to the function of this physical body and one cannot function in a body without the other. Now it is possible to leave the physical body as long as you are still attached by what you call the "silver cord" because the moment this body is disturbed in any way this is immediately known through the silver cord and immediately you will return to the body. So I do not see how this could be possible because to my knowledge, this could not take place for more, at least for more than a few hours. It could be possible for a few hours but beyond that I do not think it possible.

There have been cases where people have been dead, for all practical purposes, what you call dead and later returned to the physical body but even in those cases, in my understanding, there is still a very thin etheric connection between the physical and the astral body although they were not aware of it and some life did exist. Now we must perhaps go a little farther here to clear up something, some questions which may come up in your mind concerning this. There are those Beings who would have the power to return a soul to a body within a certain period of time after the separation and reconnect, but this would take great knowledge, such as your Master Jesus did when he demonstrated this by raising Lazarus from the tomb. But, remember here too my friends, only a short period had passed, but beyond that period the body would have deteriorated, you see, too far. This is my understanding.

Questioner: Thank you.

Questioner: I would like to say that it's been Yaum's work to at times, to work with different parts of our government and many times he has had comments concerning his work of what he could tell, it has been very enlightening to us and very interesting. Would you care to make any comment as I said to them if they are interested, concerning the status quo of world conditions as you see it or whatever activity you are in?

Yaum: I have not worked with your government.

Questioner: I beg your pardon.

Yaum: This, I have worked for your people as have many others. I have attended many of the top meetings but not in the physical, you see.

Questioner: Well thank you. I didn't make it clear.

Yaum: I attended these as I am with you now and merely to know what is going on in these places and attempt to bring right influences, you see. We have accomplished much in this way but nearly not nearly what we should have liked to. And this is not only with your people of your country, your government, but every other country involved. That is why I am in Communist China today, attempting to, and I am not alone, there are many others, some from the what you would call the Etheric Realms and some from other planets. There are many attempting today to keep your world from going completely out of balance, to try to save this beautiful planet as it is, you see. Until the influences which are being brought by the greater light can predominate and bring about this New Age of which you all are looking forward to.

Questioner: Is it true the fault lines here in California, as well as in Siberia are impressing light signals, light forces, being exerted here to?

Yaum: There have been forces exerted on many of your fault lines to try to withhold great catastrophes but sooner or later these things must come because the earth itself must go through these changes every so often in order to cleanse it you see, to revitalize it.

So, my friends, you are living in a very interesting time, in a time of great change which comes only through great periods of time and you are today on the threshold of some of the greatest events that have taken place upon this planet in many thousands of years. And all of you will see these changes take place and shall awe at the greatness of Mother Nature.

Now, my friends, I think it is time for me to vacate this instrument. It has been my very great pleasure to be with you and to share with you. Before I leave, let us try to see if we can create enough healing energy to help our dear sister here.

Questioner: Thank you.

Yaum: And if you will be so kind as to help me and to work with me, we will see if we can send to her some of this cosmic energy which should bring her great relief.

Now, my friends, let us hold our hands thusly, and as we take now a deep breath and hold, then exhale, let us do this about, well let us say, six times and as we do this, let us visualize, let us use our concentration to visualize this great cosmic energy flowing into our fingers, through our arms and let us visualize our bodies being filled with it. Let us visualize and direct this all through our bodies as we are doing this and then as I give the word, let us extend to the dear one here accumulated energy so that she might receive. And you my daughter, will you relax as completely as you can, try to let all the fears, all of the doubts, all of the problems flow from you as we are doing this and then will you visualize yourself as being an open door and this great energy flowing into the door and permeating through your entire body, direct it to, or shall we say, command it to concentrate on the areas where you most need it.

So now my friends, let us do this and see if we cannot help this one. Now let us start. Inhale, exhale. Inhale, exhale. Inhale, exhale. Inhale, exhale. Inhale, exhale. Now let us direct this energy. We command this energy to flow to this one and we command this energy to enter the door and flow to the parts of her body which are most needful of this healing energy.

(Long pause.)

So be it. Thank you, my friends.

Questioner: Thank you very much.

Yaum: It has been my very great pleasure to be with you. I hope we shall meet again dear friends. And I should like to extend my very greatest blessings and peace to all of you. May the great Masters send forth their light, their love and understanding and may it enter the hearts of all of you and may you be richly blessed and may you make great strides in your search for understanding and for Truth.

Peace, my friends, peace, peace. So be it. ❀
