Yaum: Good evening to you, my friends, I thought I might stop by and spend a few moments with you. My, you have a cozy little group here, just right for a cozy little chat. What would you like to talk about?

Questioner: Everything.

Yaum: Well, that covers a wide field and I don't think I can stay that long.

Questioner: Is Jimmy Carter backed by the big money interests?

Yaum: He is not the man that the money interests would like to see in this position and his success has been a great surprise to many of those in power and the politicians in general. It is altogether possible that his popularity, if you could call it that, might be jeopardized before election time. This is something that is working in the background but I should not like to predict at this time whether it will succeed or not. But it looks like there maybe some surprises yet in your political field, so do not be too surprised if some unusual things happen, such as great upsets which do not seem to be possible at this time. There still may be some very great surprises for the American people and for the world.

Questioner: Does Mr. Rockefeller still have some hope of becoming President?

Yaum: There is hope there but they will still be in power whether he becomes President or not, because none of the men in the running are men that are completely free of the power of these great money interests. Some can be handled easier than others. There will also be more of corruption, immorality uncovered in high places. There are very few of your politicians who have clean records, and this is why there is not more investigation and uncovering as each one is fearing that his own skeletons may be shaken loose—which most of them have. But these things are not new, they have been going on for many, many years and are now just beginning to come to the surface. And of course with the uncovering of Watergate, CIA, FBI, people are more conscious of these things, therefore more is being uncovered.

Questioner: Are Jimmy Carter's religious convictions, his belief in UFOs, etc., distasteful to the big money interests?

Yaum: Not necessarily. They don't object to this as many of them will discuss these things too, especially religion. They all pretend to be religious and they talk about God and how we should look to him for help but this is all a front. Mr. Carter is from a small community and was raised in a religion more outspoken than many others but this does not necessarily mean that they adhere to all the things that they talk about.

Questioner: Will you comment about our runaway inflation?

Yaum: Inflation is bound to continue as there is nothing being done to stop it. It has been slowed down temporarily but after the election is over, I think it will worsen. It has been difficult to hold down inflation because as long as people want more money for less work, you will never stop inflation. Of course the industrial complex merely adds that on to their products, plus a little more for themselves, and so it is a vicious circle with no way to stop it.

Questioner: Are the negative forces purposely widely using the number 666?

Yaum: Yes, but they are all not aware of why they are using it. It is a number that they will automatically attach to themselves. You will see this number being used more and more in your whole system as it is a symbol of the system and will be showing up everywhere eventually.

If you look about you, you will see that you are gradually being conditioned to a new system, because inflation is bound to reach a point soon where the currency will be worthless. So you are being educated now to use cards, to have your compensations deposited directly in the bank, to pay your bills by telephone, etc, so eventually money will be eliminated. When you see this number more and more, (which is part of the same thing as above), you will know the days are getting shorter.

And of course through this system you will have no privacy. The negative forces will know all about you and how much you possess because the records will all be an open book to those who need to know. They know most everything about you now except that you can have a little money without someone knowing about it, but you will not be able to then because there will be no money. Everything will go through the computers and every slightest purchase will be recorded. They will know all about your affiliations, your purposes and goals. They will know more about you than you know about yourself.

They will even come up with things that will pick your mind. Already they have pretty much perfected this device. This can be used individually or on groups, any way that will suit their purpose. They are power mad and will try to create automatons, which they are already working on. They will try to create a new race that can be controlled and used. Then they will have no problems with labor, you see, and you will be back to slavery, only in a different manner. These automatons correspond somewhat to the "things" that were in the Atlantean times. You see a power mad group has no conscience. They will do anything to gain more power and to have more for themselves. They want it all.

For many years now your masses have been resisting, so they have gained more power. The labor unions have become more powerful, although corrupt, and this is not good for the money powers. They must break this in some way.

Questioner: Do you think a California earthquake might occur yet this year?

Yaum: It is very possible as there is very great stress on all of the fault lines at this time and as you know there have been some very severe movements throughout the planet.

Questioner: Do you think the California earthquake that some seismologists have predicted before the end of the year will be in southern part or in the northern part?

Yaum: It could very well be in either one or both. There will be one in both parts but not at the same time. It will depend on how the stresses build up and how the movements take place on a smaller scale. Also volcanic eruptions will have a great influence on the time and place that the earthquake will take place.

Questioner: Can prayer or intervention by the Higher Powers prevent or lessen the severity of this?

Yaum: Well, I doubt it very much. You see your planet is in constant movement and these things have been happening for thousands and thousands of years and will continue to happen. But in the New Age Man will be wiser, we hope, and will be more able to foresee these things and will know-how to avoid certain, shall we say, damages. He will settle in places that will be less likely to have this happen because he will know the areas and be able to determine the best areas. He will also learn to predict these things and will use much greater wisdom in building the cities, the civilization, et cetera.

Questioner: Will a California earthquake affect the fault lines in this area?

Yaum: It will probably have some effect but I do not feel that you will get the severe quakes that California will. There will be severe earthquakes there, even before the final one, which may affect you only temporarily. There are many parts of the world who are experiencing severe food shortages and your own country is not in too good a situation because it would only take one or two bad years to put you in a very, very serious situation. Already you are feeling some of this from your droughts and floods.

Your people have been very wasteful. They have not used the good years to prepare for the lean years which are bound to come. They have been very wasteful in their food supplies, in their mineral supplies, in everything and this is going against the laws of nature. It is not cooperating with her and the law of cause and effect is bound to take its toll.

Questioner: Can one who wants to be a healer contact healers in other realms for help or does this happen by accident?

Yaum: Nothing happens by chance. The people who are being used by those from other realms or octaves of life are using them because it is necessary for them to have someone in the physical to work through on this plane. They choose someone who is suited for this, i.e., their chemical and physical makeup, their honesty, integrity, etc. And beyond this, many Earth people have come into this life to be used in that way and really have been conditioned from childhood for this.

But all of you have a certain amount of this healing power. It is a matter of developing it and continually trying to use it and also it is necessary to purify yourself. The more pure you can be, both mentally and physically, the easier it will be for you to develop, direct and use these energies. These energies are all about you, it is a matter of being able to draw them in and transfer them to someone else for healing purposes. But it does take sincerity. What is your purpose, what are your motives? Then work towards purifying your own mind and body and this can be done or helped, at least, through meditation, through practicing the silence and learning to go within and transfer yourself into other states of consciousness. This is totally a matter of dedication and practice.

Questioner: Have there been many night classes recently?

Yaum: There have been a few that I know of. You have not been doing too well in remembering them, have you? Anyhow it does not matter, you still have it.

There are many things that your civilization needs to learn that are much more important than organizing and developing great organizations whether they be religions or whatnot. Many people feel that they are doing great service when are not actually serving at all. They are teaching people what they have read in books and learned intellectually and they have no idea whether they are true or false. They appeal to them, therefore they assume that they are true. But there are many, many false doctrines being taught on your planet today under the name of religion or spiritual teachings.

Questioner: John the Baptist said that three-fourths of most of our religious organizations time is spent in administration and organizing.

Yaum: At some states of development you need to develop from within, to withdraw from the carnal, and to reach out upon your own.

Questioner: In our society we have found that to function well we have to have organization.

Yaum: Well, maybe that is a mistaken idea that your civilization has. So far I cannot see where your great religious organizations have done so much for your civilization today. And if you want to grow bigger and have a larger organization, yes, there will be politics, so to speak, and more organizing involved. But spiritual development depends on how much one serves and not in learning organization.

Questioner: Thank you, Yaum, you have been most kind and helpful. We have loved having you here.

Yaum: Now I must leave. It has been my pleasure to spend a few moments with you tonight. I hope that I have not offended anyone.

As I leave you I extend to each of you my most sincere blessings. I ask all the Great Ones to pour forth their blessings upon you at this time.

May each of you find new strength and new wisdom and peace.

Go in peace, my friends, go in peace.

(Excerpt)

Questioner: Are you, aware of our symbol?

Yaum: Yes, I am familiar with your symbol. I know that you have been impressed to do so. This did not happen by chance, it was planned that way. As you know you have been associated with some of the Teachers of the Silent Brotherhood and this is one of their ancient symbols. Now as to the whys and wherefores of your having been given this symbol or the privilege of having it and wearing it, I am not at liberty to reveal to you at this time.

I understand that you are to be given more information very shortly upon this from another source and I do not wish to—what is it you say—jump the gun on the Brothers. But you will be given more about this and the purpose for it and what the meaning will be to you, etc.
