

Caveat: These communications are informative teaching instructions for those who seek to increase their understanding of themselves and the magnitude of the future lying before us all. These lectures are not of a religious nature but rather deal with the science of human potential and evolution. This document is a direct transcription from the original recording. Although it has been checked for obvious errors, it has not been finally edited.

Teacher: Greetings to you. It is again my privilege to have the opportunity to speak with you in this manner. Now, I know that you have some questions in your mind, so I will endeavor to help you to the best of my ability.

Questioner: Will you comment on our currency?

Teacher: We do not like to pass out specific information saying that you should definitely do this or that, but I might point out to you that those who are free of debt in the times to come will be much better off than will those with debts hanging over their heads. In the times to come your money values will become less and less. Your silver and gold will buy less and less. Perhaps that is a miss-chosen term since your currency is no longer backed by gold and silver. Your currency will become worth less and less, so it will behoove those who have debts to try to clear them in the near future. Many of your people are thinking in terms of paying off debts with inflated currency and therefore gaining in that way, and of course this is true today. A debt incurred several years back can be paid today with your inflated currency and one is gaining. However, there is a great danger of your currency becoming worthless. Should this occur, you would not have the means to pay, perhaps.

The money interests of your country are aware of the dangers of this and are aware of the possibilities of this coming about. They are laying plans for transactions without the use of the currency as you know it. There is a great question as to how this will work, or if it will work, and there is a question of what happens to the currency that you have and how the values will be calculated. So it would seem if one has a debt, it would be wiser to pay it while your currency is still in circulation. Does this conform to your judgment?

Questioner: Yes, thank you.

The work that you are doing with the youth is going to be a good experience for you. You are giving much and you will receive much. You will develop the confidence within these youths that will enable them to go through the times that they face much more easily, and will give them a greater spiritual strength to cope with the things that they will face. And it looks like this group will grow.

You have much ahead of you. I mean by this that you are going to find yourselves busier day-by-day. You may be called upon in many ways to give service to your fellow man and you will respond to these calls, and you will fulfill the demand in a satisfactory way. You are going to find your activities increasing in more than one area, but each will be an area of service. A service in all cases that will improve the well being, spiritual and physical, of those who receive your service. Another reward for these services, if you are faithful, and if you give in dedicated love and devotion, you will receive spiritual experiences far beyond your expectations, experiences that will renew you and you will truly be born again. I cannot say what your experiences will be, for this will depend on you for one can lead to another. You will continue to grow according to your own efforts, your prayer life, your dedication to the service of mankind. You have many of the tools today to serve mankind and you will be given more as you are able to use them.

Questioner: In working with young people. I do not wish to give them information that is over their heads, but at the same time I would like to stretch them by giving them a more inclusive awareness of themselves, and to share with them more of the nature of their own beings. When I talk to them I feel vocal strength. I would like to see it develop.

Teacher: As you go forward in this project you will find more and more coming to you, flowing through you, and you are right in not trying to lead them too fast. Feed the sheep but do not overfeed them, for this causes them spiritual illness. Keep slightly above their present consciousness, just enough to keep drawing them up and up as they are able to receive. You will be helped and guided many times in this. You will find words coming to you that you did not know you had. Those who are sincere and truly dedicated to serving the Christ, will find many times, the Mother of Wisdom giving them the right things to say and to do at the right time. They know not from whence it comes, but they know that it is right. You will experience it as you are already experiencing it to a certain degree, as each of you are.

It is important to keep discussions upon a plane of love, for when you have two opposing forces, it brings about a conflict that cannot harmonize. If it is not kept upon the level of love, they can never meet in harmony. However, if love is used by the one force, it overcomes the other. I do not mean overcome in the sense of conquering, but a meeting of the minds.

Questioner: How can I interest more people in the food storage plan?

Teacher: I think you are going to find more and more people becoming aware of the fact that it is wise to have some storage, because there is more and more attention being given to this through your media and from all directions. People are beginning to realize the situation and are going to respond to these storage programs. I think you will find a great deal of interest in the field for the wise will prepare.

You are entering the seven years of lack which has been a cycle in the past and has increased over a period of time in severity. These are the lean years and the fat. The problem has been that your civilization did not prepare during the plenty years for the lean years. Instead, they wasted and they made merry when they should have been storing. These stories occurred and are told in your Bible which goes back to your ancient times, of the lean years and the plenty years, and how those who did not prepare suffered in the lean years, as you recall.

This is the same situation today. You have an opportunity there to be of service to people with that and with your food supplements, to help those who have need for these things, who are suffering from bad nutrition.

Questioner: It would be wonderful to work fulltime with the food supplements and the food storage program.

Teacher: Well, this can take place. It is a matter of application. You have seen it done by others, and you are just as capable.

Questioner: Do you have any suggestions for improving my meditations?

Teacher: No, I do not believe that I have any special advice for you there. I think you are doing well in your quiet times. Perhaps if you could work in your quiet time a little more often? Yet, I think that if you continue in your efforts in the silence, you will find your own soul developing techniques that are best for you. I do not think you need to be unduly concerned about your methods.

Questioner: The reason I asked was because books don't seem to give me the answers to what I want to know, that is, the Realities.

Teacher: Books are only someone else's experiences. They may give you ideas and help you in some ways, but by and large, it is necessary to find your own way into the silence. It is good to try techniques that might appeal to you that others may use, but eventually as you continue in the silence, you will find your own way.

The greatest and most important thing is your sincerity in seeking, and allowing yourself to go deeper and deeper within to search that inner man, for there is where you really find the answers to all things. Men can tell you, you can read books, you can listen to the experiences of others, but this does not make it so. You have to experience it to know. As you practice the silence, regularly and sincerely, you will find these ways. You are doing well and your sincerity is there. Your regularity may not be of the best, but this will come.

Now, if I have satisfied you ...

Questioner: Yes, thank you

Teacher: I would like to extend to each of you my most sincere blessings. Each day I ask that love and blessings be bestowed upon each of you, and each day I pray for your development, for your well-being and your peace of mind. I know that my prayers are effective for I believe that day-by-day you are finding more of this. It is a joy for me to have had this opportunity to speak with you and to be with you in this manner. I extend my gratitude to the instrument and to his wisdom, and to the mate of the instrument, for I am grateful to have had this opportunity. I hope it has been as great a joy to you as it has been to me.

I leave you in peace. ✿
