These lectures are not of a religious nature but rather deal with the science of human potential and evolution. This document is a direct transcription from the original recording. Although it has been checked for obvious errors, it has not been finally edited.

Oxal: Greetings in the Light, my friends, I am Oxal.

Once more, my friends, I should like to comment upon what we observe from our vantage point here in space.

The tension upon your planet is increasing day-by-day. Whenever the economic system of your planet begins to totter, tension is increased. The great powers that control the monetary system have great concern for their system. They must bring about condition's that will bolster the spending. Each time it becomes more difficult for them to bring about the spending that is necessary to conduct their wars without bringing into being a major catastrophe, which they fear for themselves more than they fear for you.

Your civilization today rocks in the balance. There appears to be a great deal of bloodshed in the near future. Those of you who have knowledge of your powers, use them to counteract the conditions that are growing by the moment.

A system that is founded upon the basis of which yours is founded, must fail sooner or later. What amazes us most is to observe the stupidity with what some of your so called great minds function. It is difficult to see how they can hope to continue a system of barter that is based upon greed, power and lust, yet their eyes seem blinded to the truth. They see not, neither do they hear.

Several attempts have been made from your neighboring planets to point out the folly of your system, to bring aid to you, to show you the way. Yet, each attempt has failed. A great spiritual blindness exists among these people.

They have built a consciousness of power, of greed and they have not been able to penetrate beyond this consciousness.

A great, great amount of detail planning is going on at this time among the powers that control your planet—and note that I said planet—for these powers reach every nation upon your planet. They are much more far reaching than you think or realize. Your great nation, as great as it may seem, is not what it seems, for it too is controlled by the great monetary system that controls the functions of your planet, of practically all of the nations. These shackles will not be easy to break, my friends, yet they shall be broken, and man again shall be free, for it is the will of your creator that man shall be free.

But, before man of Earth can free himself, he must pass through many great experiences that will give him wisdom and understanding. He must be awakened to the truth. He must be awakened to the fact that man does not live by bread alone, that there are many other things that are even more essential to man's freedom, to his understanding. Man of Earth must be awakened to the fact that he must build a consciousness of love, of understanding, a consciousness of peace, of well-being, of love, of understanding for his fellow being.

He must learn to live side by side with mankind in peace, in love and in understanding. He must realize his responsibilities to his creator and to creation. He must come to know his likeness to his creator, his relationship, for, until man comes into a realization of these things, he cannot live in peace. All of these things, my dear friends, must begin in the heart of man himself.

A realization is dawning in the hearts of millions of your people, a realization of the need for these things, and a realization that they must start in the individual heart. As this takes root and spreads among your people, many will gain this consciousness, and through the events that are to come, the realization will spring up among those who have a desire to follow the path of understanding, of justice, and those who cannot find this desire in their hearts will fade from this planet. Let your prayers be, beloved ones, that man of Earth shall find this consciousness rapidly, so that the events may pass more rapidly and that your planet might gain its place in your system, its rightful place, as soon as possible.

Let your Light so shine in your life that it might spread this desire in the hearts of man. For no man can spread truth more rapidly than by living the truth, by showing the way by example. This is the only way, so let your example show the way for others.

I leave you, my friends, by extending to you the love, the light and the understanding of my people.

I am Oxal. ✿
