Oxal: Greetings in the Light, my friends, I am Oxal,

It is my pleasure to once more to speak to you. We have listened to your conversation prior to your meditation, also, we have had our Iconiscan tuned to your group and we see that your gathering is somewhat larger than usual. I would extend greetings to those who are new here tonight and say that we are pleased with your interest.

My friends, as you recall at the beginning of this decade, we gave you some idea of what you could expect. I think you will have to agree that it is progressing in that direction. In the past year you have seen record breaking events in your weather patterns and this will continue to increase as the decade proceeds. These events of the past year will be minor compared to some that are ahead. We do not say this to frighten you, to put fear in your hearts. We only wish to remind you lest you allow yourselves to be lulled into sleep, for to be forewarned is to be forearmed. It is so that you might be prepared and not taken by surprise as many will be who ignore the warnings and who will go about their merry way.

This is only a repeat of what has taken place many times upon your Earth in many civilizations. As we have promised in the past that those who have made the choice, who have chosen to serve their humanity in every way possible, who have chosen to serve in His everlasting light, that we shall extend our protection and our guidance and our help in every way possible. But each individual must also do his part. We can attempt to guide, to impress upon the minds of individuals certain things that are necessary for their well-being, but unless they heed this guidance it will not be of much help to them.

So, my friends, cultivate your awareness, learn to know yourself and your abilities and use your God-given facilities to bring about the peace, the well-being and the happiness for yourself and for those for whom you are working and helping. Be aware for pearls of wisdom that will be coming to you in many ways. Do not expect to always find these in high places, for some of your greatest pearls of wisdom will come from seemingly low places. Be aware of whom you entertain lest you entertain angels and be not aware. Cultivate your awareness, be alert but also be discerning and cautious. Always be aware that there also other forces which are not concerned with your welfare, but rather would see your downfall. Learn to know and recognize the signs for they are always there and they stand out very plainly if you are aware.

There are many who seek to have you follow their way and ignore all other but be sure before you follow that you are following in the path of truth. Truth does not need to be sold for truth will stand upon its own. Those who would lead you astray will try to do it by using some of what you know to be truth. But each of you have within you a guiding voice, a part of you that knows all truth. It is necessary for each to become better acquainted with this part of your being that it might guide you along the way. Whether you accept or reject or just lay aside anything to which you are exposed should be determined by this part of your inner being, And this part may reject a truth in part it may tell you to lay this particular item aside for future reference and this is because in your present state of consciousness you are not ready for that particular phase of truth. May have come to you too soon, yet your Higher Self or Higher Being will recognize this and you will have a feeling of neither accepting or rejecting. This is something that is well to cultivate. When you have this facility working for you, you are not apt to go too far to the right or to the left.

The search for truth is a never ending thing, yet it is something that we must continually strive for. We must continually search, and as we do search sincerely, with the proper motives in mind, we will find by and large, that the proper truths will come to us as we need them and are able to use and accept them.

Those who have made the decision, who are serving in His light, who are searching for truth in the right and proper manner, have nothing to fear in the great changes that are ahead. They will see them as a great cleansing of your planet, a great opportunity, a great preparation for a greater time and for greater opportunities to be brought to you.

I shall not go into what is ahead so far as your new Age is concerned for I think that has been discussed many times and you are well aware of it. But we do like to remind you occasionally, for we know that in your chemical, physical world, in the hypnotic state which you exist in, you are apt to slip back into sleep. Your efforts are apt to slow down and we do not wish to see this. We wish to see you moving ever onward and upward on the path, ever mindful of what is ahead and what you are striving for, so occasionally we remind you. I hope you will forgive us for this.

I know you have much to discuss and I have said enough, so I will leave you now by extending to you the love, the light and the understanding of my people.

I am Oxal. ☸
