Yaum: Peace, my beloved ones.

It hath been said, "Blessed are the peacemakers." I should like with your permission, to dwell upon this for but a moment, for it seems that your people have interpreted this saying to mean that a peacemaker is one who goes about trying to make peace between individuals of disagreement or groups or nations. But, beloved ones, the true peacemaker is one who first establishes peace within his own being and when this is accomplished he becomes, through his very being, a peacemaker. For having established peace within his own being, the great Light that he does emanate to those about him and with whom he comes in contact, these are greatly affected by the very contact of his being, and the degree of peace grows within those about him. For, you see, he is demonstrating peace without saying a word, and those who come to know him, begin to glow in peace. Just the very association will cause them to desire to establish within themselves that which he has found and he truly becomes a peacemaker.

It hath also been said, "Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid, for lo, I AM with you always." This, beloved ones, has also been greatly misinterpreted by Earth people. Many of the things spoken by the great Masters who have visited your planet in attempting to help, have been taken with literal meanings. The reference to the I AM, which was so often used by these Masters, have been accepted as a personal I am, which they did not mean. To those in that day who understood, these things were clear, but they have been handed down by teachers who did not understand, and therefore your people have been taught in darkness.

I am sure that all of you here have a clear understanding of the I AM, have the knowing that this I AM is the creative part within you, what many of you refer to as God. This you truly are, for each and every individual treading your planet is a potential being that you would refer to as God for each is a true creator in his own right, once he has established within him the true understanding of the I AM. So you see, beloved, I AM with you always, in this expression, and in any type of expression that you might ever attain. I AM that I AM, I AM THAT I AM. The emphasis must be placed upon the I and the That.

These are the things that must become clear to Earth people, and those of you who have some understanding of these things, can be of much help to many. Many of these things have been brought to your attention; much, all of you have learned of the true meaning of the words of the Masters. Use this knowledge whenever you have the opportunity to plant seeds of truth in the hearts of your people that they might grow toward greater understanding. Become a peacemaker, for no greater joy hath any man than to become a peacemaker.

Receive, ye now the blessings, Peace, love and the understanding of our Brotherhood. Go in Peace, go in Peace. Peace.

Good evening, I am Yaum. I am just going to say a few words to you concerning the being who just spoke to you. He happened to be in my presence tonight and I asked him if he would come here with me and speak a few words to you, which he graciously consented to do. He is, in my opinion, a being of great understanding. He is not from this realm of life. At this time he is expressing in the Etheric realm, another phase of life. He was happy to spend this time with you. This is all I wanted to say and to extend to you my very deepest love and blessings.

Bless you all. Goodnight. ♣
