(Chants)

Teacher: Greetings to thee, my beloved friends. My blessings and my peace I give unto you this night.

I would say a few words to you on this occasion concerning the things that you should be aware of and doing in the coming days and months and years. As you are aware, there are many forces at work today in your environment. There are those forces who are working diligently for your good, trying to help bring you into some realization of what and who you are and a realization of the changes that must take place in your lives and in your consciousness. As you realize, each of you stand at a slightly different level of consciousness, but regardless of this, much can be learned from each other regardless of the level of consciousness of the individual, therefore it behooves each to establish an oneness between themselves and those with whom they find they can establish any degree of harmony or universal love. To love one's neighbor is not as difficult as it might seem to you if you only put forth some effort in trying to establish this. Therefore it is very essential, in the times ahead, to be always willing and ready to help one another in every way possible. For you are your brother's keeper, in a sense of speaking, and only through your service to your fellow man do you lighten your own load.

Now, if you put forth the effort, honestly and sincerely, to do these things and to be of service, you are going to find many opportunities presenting themselves whereby you can alleviate many of your own obligations which you have created in the past. For it is only through your own love and service that you can enter into this grace and there have some of your own karmic debts erased. It is easy to say a thing but speaking the word does not necessarily include the act. For the act is truly in the heart and the feeling that goes forth from this heart, to say "I forgive you or your sins are forgiven." means nothing what so ever unless it comes truly from the heart. And when it does, beloved ones, you will know because you will have a feeling of joy which you cannot mistake.

There is much to be accomplished in your world today. Many are crying for help in many ways but there are few who are ready and willing to administer this help. It is not enough when one comes to you hungry to bless him and say to him "Go and be blessed, go in peace. "Because unless you put the food in his mouth and his stomach you have done nothing. Now, you are going to find many opportunities presenting themselves in various ways where you can be of service. The test will be in how well you respond to these things. And so accordingly will it be done unto you, and so accordingly will you receive new light, new strength, find new understanding, new peace, and new joy growing ever greater as does your response to his will.

Let this Christ Love that dwells within you become ever stronger. Nourish it, feed it in every way possible so that it might come forth and blossom out in your being and may shine forth for others to see. This is one of the greatest encouragement's to others when they see the Christ Love emanating from another. It has an attraction that is irresistible to many and they want to follow immediately.

So, I say to you, beloved ones, prepare, prepare, for the kingdom is at hand for you. You need only to complete, the preparation and enter therein, and your joys shall be great, so great that no suffering you might encounter from those who would bring you harm or condemnation will affect you in any way. For your joy and peace would be so great that it would offset in any way, any negations. There will be great demands on those who choose the path. Their load will not be light, yet it will be joyous. For what greater joy can any soul have than to know that he has fulfilled his obligations to his brother man of which he is a part, and his brother man is a part. All life is held together by this great a oneness with all life, all things. And this is truly knowing the Kingdom and entering therein.

Beloved ones, I extend to each of you my most sincere blessings, love and peace. And I call upon all of the great Masters of the Universe, the truly great ones, to extend their blessings to you, to surround you with their love, to send these rays, vibrations, through your bodies. And I ask that you might be open and receptive to this, that it might fill your bodies, your minds, your hearts, with a new joy, a new love, and a new understanding. And that this great love energy might flow through every cell, every fiber of your being,

rejuvenating and bringing you new health, a new well being, and a new peace.

I give thanks that this is done.

Peace be with you, beloved ones. Peace, Peace,
Peace. ♣
