Joseph: Greetings to you, my beloved friends. I greet you in the Light of Love and Understanding. I am Joseph.

Love is needed today upon your planet as it has never been needed before. All of those of you who would walk in the Light, we urge you to develop your Love and Understanding. Long ago, you were given the importance of learning to Love one another. This was one of the uppermost commandments that you were given. Yet, very little of this has been developed among your people. Most think in terms of self.

A civilization that can stand in the fire cannot be built by those who would think in terms of self. If a civilization is to develop that is strong, that can stand against all opposing forces, it must be built upon Love. This is the rock of which your great Master spoke, and the sand is self. Very little of your civilization has been built upon this rock. That is why Earth people find themselves in the situation that they are in today.

Little respect has been shown for the creations that were created for man. He has exploited and wasted them to satisfy the lower self, and the results are being reaped today. It is up to those who are able to see and to hear and are willing to put forth the effort, to bring about changes. There is much that must be undone. There is much that must be wiped away. Each one can do his part in helping with this task by developing his love and tolerance for his fellow man and all of God's creation.

Man is unaware of much of the help that was put here for him, because he has allowed his senses to become dulled. He has been so involved in self that he has neglected to search for the answers to many things. When man was created, he was given certain rights, such as a right to choose. He was also given help by the creation of other forms of life to help him in controlling and using that which was supplied for him. For instance, there were created for him certain elemental spirits in all of the elements, such as fire, water, and air. These were created to aid man in his control of these things. However he has chosen to ignore these helpers. If man were to become aware of them and to cooperate with them, he would be much more successful in the use of the elements.

Your great Master, Jesus the Christ, demonstrated these things very clearly to man, yet man refused to comprehend. It seems to be very difficult for Earth man to accept anything that is beyond his physical senses. If he cannot feel, smell, see, or hear it, it does not exist. This is something that Earth man must learn to overcome if he is to reap the benefits of these creations, for these spirits respond only to Love. When man recognizes these spirits and sends forth his Love to them and invites their help, he will be amazed at the help he will receive.

This is now being demonstrated upon your planet with the nature spirits in a place that is known as Findhorn. As these people have become aware of the elementals and worked with them in Love, they have found that the results were unbelievable. This can be investigated by anyone who wishes to learn this truth.

So, you see, Love is the most powerful energy that man possesses. Love sharpens the mind and increases its capacity. I do not speak of a Love as it is thought of by most Earth people. It is not a physical Love, but a deep concern for all life, becoming one with it. For as you learn to love all things in God's creation, you soon discover that all life is one. Each one is dependent upon the other. The act of each has its effect upon the other for there is that etheric cord which makes us all one.

This is what your Master Jesus meant when he said that when you harm the least one of these creatures you shake the throne of heaven, for heaven lies within all things, all life. This is another reason why man was commanded not to kill. In the times to come after your Earth has been cleansed and you have moved into a new Age and a new civilization has been born, man will experience a greater understanding of these things. He will begin to get a truer understanding of Love.

As it stands today, Earth has only a tiny concept of this. When one has a greater concept of Love, he wants only to serve his fellow man to his fullest capacity. This is not done with the thought of what it might bring him in return, but what his service will do to benefit all mankind.

Do you see, my friends, what a different civilization it would be, based upon Love and Service? There could be no wars, no killing, no want, for all men would serve to their fullest capacity. There would be no need for great wealth, neither would there be poverty. Man has been supplied with all that he can possibly use. He can only use a limited amount of anything and as long as he has that supply, does he need more?

It is said by many that this can never work, because only a few are capable of responsibility and the others must be led. This is only a weak concept, for if a civilization is based upon the rock of Love and each man is indoctrinated with this from the beginning and understands his responsibilities and is willing to fulfill them, it cannot help but work. However, there is no place for greed, hate, or jealousy.

There are many, many planets throughout the universe that function on this basis, and on all these planets their people live in Peace, love, and happiness. They enjoy great abundance and there is no mental illness or illness of any kind. Someday, in the not too far distant future, we hope to see planet Earth functioning in this manner.

As I have spoken to you tonight, one has stood among you who has mastered this Love eons of time past. He has poured out this Love to you tonight.

As I leave you, I wish to extend to each of you my Love, my Blessings and my Peace.

Go in peace. ❀
