Zalhem: Greetings to you, my children, I am Zalhem.

I come to you for but a moment to bring to you a blessing. Each of you, my children, are thrice-blest this night. There are others here who are also pouring out their love and their blessings to your Receive this, my children.

Let your hearts be filled with love. Let the thoughts or actions of no man prevent you from receiving this love.

You have need for this great energy. Absorb it, let it strengthen your souls and your minds. Let your hearts be lifted into a new dimension, one of peace and love, of joy. Let not these worldly things possess you, they need not possess you.

Let your heart and your soul sing with joy and with love, with thanksgiving and appreciation that you might open the doors for greater things to flow to you. A joyous heart is a healthy heart.

Look not upon the dark side of life but rather upon the light side. See the good things and rejoice in them and be glad. And as you do, you will see the darker side becoming dimmer and dimmer, Its influence will be less and less in your life.

So, beloved ones, receive ye now the love and the Peace and the power that your Heavenly Father intended that you should have. Make it a part of you through every hour of your day.

Rejoice and give praise that you are, because He is.

I leave you now, my beloved friends. I leave you in Peace, in joy and in love.

Bless you, beloved ones, bless you.

Teacher: Greetings to you, beloved friends. I extend my love and blessings to each of you and to my beloved son here, I extend my deepest love and blessings to the instrument I extend my gratitude for this opportunity.

Now my son I realize that there are many questions in your mind. There are many things about which you have wondered and one of the greatest questions you have at this time, I believe, is why you find yourself in the situation that you are in. Now I believe that we can accomplish our goal more quickly by attempting to answer questions for you. I will endeavor, to the best of my ability, to answer them but I will not promise to be able to answer all of the things that might be in your mind. So we shall proceed in this manner.

Questioner: Is this Neo-Life venture, or business, a way of serving now or does it have a bigger purpose for me in the future?

Teacher: I perceive that you would like us to spell out quite clearly why and how this has come about and where it may lead. With this in mind I shall attempt to do so.

As all of you are aware who have studied in the past, things do not happen by chance. Everything has a purpose behind it. To begin with I shall say that there is a great need among your people today for nutrition. Your foods, as you are well aware, are depleted, inadequate, they do not supply the needs of your body. And this condition will not improve rapidly enough to prevent the damage that is being done and will be done. I am sure all of you know many people who have been seeking spiritually for a long time. Yet their bodies are not in a good condition. They are suffering from many physical ailments, so to speak. They have not been able to overcome these things, there is something lacking and they have tried many supplements to no avail. Now here you have an opportunity to help those people. But this is only one aspect.

In the time to come many of those who have been serving in the Father's work, are going to find the opportunities to serve in greater ways. Yet, in order to do this, they are not going to be free, yet it will be necessary to be free in order to do this. They will have to have the necessary monetary exchange to carry on their work, so it is going to be necessary for them to be freed from some of the chains to which they are now tied. In your system it is not always easy to do this.

In bringing this opportunity to many of you, we have we feel, chosen wisely. The development of these products was divinely inspired. The reason this was accomplished was because people were chosen who were sincere, who had in their hearts a love for their fellow man and a desire to help them.

Now it does not matter what a man's religious beliefs might be. The main thing that is sought for in these cases is for one that is true to his beliefs and has love and sincerity in his heart and love for his fellow man. The people who were chosen to develop and then to head and market these products and develop others, were men of this caliber. But in your system these things must function within the system. We feel, at least to this point, that this has been kept within the system and yet upon a high level, a level of quality and a level of a desire to help.

So we have brought here a product of quality, an opportunity to serve and an opportunity to be amply and fairly compensated for your efforts an opportunity for many to be freed from the chains that now bind them. Freed, perhaps, at a future time to do even a greater service without being bound by the chains of your system. This opportunity is coming to many. There are many other opportunities of like nature developing throughout your planet for those who would serve.

So you see, you have a manyfold opportunity and you will find many who will seize the opportunity and see its value. There are many who are attempting to be in the service of the Father, who are claiming to be in the service, who will not seize opportunities of this nature, who will scoff at it, even condemn it. Those who have the opportunity and see it not in this or in any other opportunity that is presented to them, will fall by the wayside. They will be overcome by the obstacles that they will encounter for they will have no way to overcome them.

Those who are willing to serve the great Master will find that he will open the door for them. But when the door is opened, they must enter. Those who are sincere in their desire, will enter. The Father has many doors to open and the proper door is opened for each one, but he must have the eyes to see and the ears to hear. Does this make it clear?

Questioner: Yes.

Questioner: How do I make God my partner in business?

Teacher: Taking God in as a partner in your business means that you walk with Him, that you see His principles in your business. You serve for the sake of serving and not for the monetary end. The monetary reimbursement you get from the business should be shared in the manner that you see fit. Some call it tithing. At least a portion should be set aside, at least ten per cent, to be used and to be given for the good of others. You distribute it as you see the opportunity to do so. But always be sure that it is going to benefit someone, to help someone, for "Even as you have helped the least of these, you have done it unto Me."

This opportunity here to serve and to do good for others is unlimited and the more you expand, the more people you will be helping. It will require a great deal of study and effort to do this and do it properly. Nothing is gained without much work and much effort. The throne of heaven will never be reached by sitting and gazing upward or becoming silent. Each thing has its place but man does not accomplish any feat of any value without much labor. The Father works and you must work if you are to gain His kingdom. You will find information and help coming to you.

Questioner: Should some of the remuneration be held in reserve for the future?

Teacher: There is nothing wrong with a reserve. I said that a portion should be given away and you will find that as you do this that the remuneration will increase. You will have more and more to give and more and more to have. You have contained within this program here, a retirement system such as very few, if any, have so it is not necessary to put aside for the future. It is not wrong to have money in the bank, providing you are giving your share to help others, as a certain amount in reserve is necessary to function in your system as a monetary exchange. There is no necessity of having huge quantities, just enough to take care of normal functions. The business itself requires a certain amount of what you call money, to function. That is the way your system works.

An attitude of service must be emphasized to all those to whom you speak. The monetary part is a secondary part which is necessary in your system but it is not important. It comes automatically with your service and your desire to serve. There is no greater joy than service. What greater joy can man have in his heart than to know that he has helped his fellow man, that he has helped him to a richer life, to a greater understanding? And when I say a richer life I do not mean monetarily. I mean that if you have made him happier, healthier and more spiritual or even sparked a desire in him to seek the spiritual things of life you have done him a great service and this in itself will put joy in your heart.

Questioner: Should we emphasize to those who are spiritually minded that we can grow faster spiritually if we have a healthier body?

Teacher: Yes, you can decide by your own intuitiveness if this would be of interest to them. But because a man appears not to be spiritual to you does not mean that you should not help him, as you do not know at what stage that he may become spiritual. Maybe by just making him a little healthier and a little happier, he may become more spiritual. Anyone who is seeking spiritually can do it better if he has a healthy well functioning physique.

Questioner: We feel inadequate in presenting this program.

Teacher: This inadequacy is a state of consciousness. You have these abilities but feel inferior. But I think that as you move along more confidence will come and you will be able to make a presentation. And you will find that perhaps that some that you have already started will, in due time, begin to see the light. Things do not always move as rapidly as we would like, but here again we need patience and need to the best of our ability to have faith and try to develop confidence in ourselves. I believe that more opportunities will come to you to serve, that you will meet more and more people and as this begins to grow you will find that you will make new friends and will come in contact with more and more people.

Questioner: Is Gloda part of the divine plan of the Teachers?

Teacher: You could say that it is, as it is one of the finest. We do not think that these things are particularly necessary, but due to your environment, you will find that they will be a great help to condition your skin and to allow your skin to resist some of the things that it is exposed to. You will not find a more efficient product of this type. Your cleaning products are also of a nature that will not pollute your streams. You already know this. They are equal to anything that is being marketed and very few products will even compare, very, very few.

Questioner: Are there any other products that have the lipid factors?

Teacher: There are not. Not in your country at least. When I was speaking of other opportunities I meant that there were other opportunities, being developed for those who have certain needs throughout your planet, some of them are of an entirely different nature.

Questioner: Will these lipid factors of Neo-Life that help the glandular system be developed in other food supplements?

Teacher: No. At least not for sometime because this process of obtaining the lipids in this form has been patented.

But follow in His footsteps as closely as you can; be sincere, be dedicated. Do not let the carnal desires overcome you. You must be strong and it is not always easy to be strong. The temptations are many and are great. Few there are that find the narrow path into His kingdom. The entrance to His kingdom is narrow, it is low. All the carnal things must be left outside, but you will pass that way. The fast way is not always the best. Lessons learned slowly are imprinted more solidly in your consciousness. If you do the best you can and you are sincere and true to your cause, the doors will open as rapidly as you are able to enter them.

There are many phases on the upward climb and at times we have great experiences which thrill us through and through and we want to move on by leaps and bounds, yet we do not. We seem to slow down and even at times, slide a little backward, or seemingly so. But the climb is much more steady than you realize. So be not too concerned about the rapidity of your spiritual growth, but rather be more concerned with the sincerity and the developing of the ability to overcome. The climbing of this ladder is not a rapid procedure. One reason is that you view it through a very narrow crack in the fence. When your sight is widened you will find that you progressed more rapidly than you thought.

Questioner: Shall I participate in group meditation?

Teacher: Yes, if you receive spiritual upliftment, spiritual benefit from it. It is necessary for a man in his walk of life, to devote some of his time to spiritual growth. We do not suggest, in this program, that you do nothing else. This will be no more than a job, as you call it. It will require, perhaps, more of your time than what you call an eight-to-five job, but you still should have some leisure time for yourself and time for spiritual growth. It is not necessary for you to make this your whole life.

Now, I have stayed my time so I will extend to each of you my love and blessings, and to you, my son, I will be watching over you and perhaps in the not too far distant future, we again can speak together. I leave you in love, in peace and in understanding.

Peace be with each of you, beloved ones, go in Peace.

Let your hearts be filled with Peace. ✨
