Yaum: Good evening to you, my friends. It is my pleasure to come among you again.

I wish to extend my greetings to all of you and I see that you have some new guests here tonight. I should like to extend my special greetings and blessings to them.

Zalhem was going to speak to you tonight, but circumstances prevented him from coming at this time, so I volunteered to take his place. Now, my friends, do you have anything special that you would like to talk about tonight?

Questioner: I feel an increasing need to learn humility. Perhaps you could speak about this subject?

Yaum: Humility is something that all of us must learn and accomplish. You can never be a great soul until you have learned humility. All of the great beings throughout the universe have accomplished this. Through your life, my friend, this is something that is important to accomplish. It is not too common among Earth people, I am sorry to say. Earth people, for some reason, think that they must be just the opposite if they are to accomplish good things. These people and their accomplishments are all in the carnal, of course.

This is not to say that you cannot be humble and still have your needs fulfilled. Your needs will be met if you have the faith and the humility. You will find that you do not have the great needs that you thought you had before. Most people think they have to have much more than they really need.

Great accumulations of wealth can destroy people. In other words, the carnal things control them rather than their being in control of the carnal things. They become slaves to their possessions.

Humility is something that you have to practice to accomplish, and you have to realize the importance of it. It is not something that I or anyone else can give you a cut and dried formula to obtain. One obtains humility through developing love for his fellow man and for all Creation, and by continually realizing his relationship to all Creation.

If you can observe Creation in its wholeness and in the right perspective, you will realize how humble you are and what a small, minute part of this whole Creation you are. From your viewpoint here on planet Earth, you only see a small part of the Creation rather than the whole. Every part of Creation, regardless of how small it might be, is important, for all Creation is bound together.

This is what the Master Jesus meant when He said that when you harm the least crawling thing, you shake the throne of Heaven. He did not mean that you were shaking some throne up there where some great man sits. He meant that you were shaking the Heavens (all Creation) because all Creation is tied together by an etheric cord. You cannot disturb one part without affecting the whole. It is like your own body. If you damage one part of your physical body it disturbs the whole body. It is the same thing in Creation as a whole.

Questioner: Is that why those who have attained a deeper understanding do not kill to eat?

Yaum: Yes, they do not destroy or kill because they understand the results of this.

Questioner: I was wondering if we are having an opening up now of facts concerning the history of our world and its past civilizations and if we will be seeing more and more of this revealed?

Yaum: There will be more and more coming to light concerning the history of your world. Your archaeologists have, in the past, been very conservative in many of their statements about these past civilizations, and in evaluating their size, etc. There has been life upon your planet for much longer than has been thought. There have been many highly advanced civilizations that have come and gone, and this is beginning to come to light now. Many of your archaeologists are beginning to realize this, and they are finding more and more evidence to verify it.

They have found definite proof now of the Atlantis civilization and the civilization of Mu, and many others. Civilizations have existed upon your planet for well over 200,000 years and they are beginning now to find proof of this. You see, they will have to find proof that will satisfy them before they will believe or establish these facts, and this is as it should be. They have been told through various sources that this was the case but they do not accept this as fact until they have found proof, and they are finding it.

In fact, they already have found proof of life after death, and this has been established by some of your scientists through their research, as a fact. Of course, this does not mean that your religious organizations are going to accept this as fact right away. It takes time for new things to be accepted, for it is not easy to admit that you have been wrong about things for so long. This is pride, or a lack of humility, you see. This is why it takes so long for your professions to accept new things that are contrary to their prior beliefs. They do not like to admit they have been wrong.

Much more is going to be discovered about outer space. They are going to find that there is life everywhere. It may not be life as you know it here in all places, for there can be individuals and beings who may be very much different than people of Earth. They might have bodies which look very different and require a different diet.

Questioner: In my reading I have repeatedly come across the name of an ancient city known as Shamballa, which is purported to be located in the Gobi Desert. Have you ever been there?

Yaum: No, I have not been there myself. I have been many places upon your planet, but I do not recall having been to that spot. There are many places similar to what you have been talking about, where great cities are being uncovered and they are finding writings that they are able to translate. These writings are bringing out facts that prove to them that life has existed here for a long time, and that some of the scientific knowledge these civilizations possessed was more advanced than what you have today.

Questioner: In the more than 200 years that you have been dwelling in the physical body upon our planet, you have seen much progress taking place in our civilization, haven't you?

Yaum: Well, actually, your progress has mostly taken place in the last 75 years.

Questioner: You were on this planet when the "witch hunts" and other similar persecutions were being carried out, weren't you?

Yaum: Yes, but at that time I was not circulating among men. I was teaching in the Mystery Schools. Man goes through these experiences and phases in the process of becoming civilized, and he eventually matures. However, Earth man has not improved too much since those times. He merely has developed more sophisticated methods of carrying these things out.

Questioner: Do you think that Earth man will be able to avoid another World War?

Yaum: No. It is shaping up now and will come about. It will be much worse than any that you have experienced before, because you have more terrible weapons to use nowadays. The hierarchy that controls your world is not trying to avoid war, because they have to have wars to make money, so to speak. It is not especially the money that they want. It is the power which the wealth gives them that they seek. They seek power and they gain it through wealth. Whosoever controls the wealth of a civilization controls that civilization. In your type of civilization, your political societies and particularly certain of your religious organizations, control huge amounts of wealth and wealth is power over the people.

Questioner: Aren't the religious organizations using it in such a way as to avoid war?

Yaum: I am sorry to say that they are not.

Questioner: Is there nothing that we can do to prevent this war?

Yaum: I do not see how it can be avoided. For one thing, your people do not take interest in their political process as they should. They have completely lost touch with their political representatives, and they have allowed these powerful interests to gain control. This has not happened overnight. It has been going on for more than 200 years in your country and before that in other lands. It could have been stopped long ago if your peoples had determined to do so, for there is power in numbers.

The situation of karmic debt enters into this also. Certain individuals and certain groups have made progress so far as their own development is concerned. As far as your world as a whole, however, there has been very little progress except scientifically. This has been the problem. You have advanced in your scientific development, especially in the last 75 years, but the spiritual development of your world as a whole has not kept pace. Therefore you do not have the wisdom to handle it.

Your civilization has failed to build the foundation that was needed. If you do not have the wisdom to handle power, it becomes very dangerous. This is why much of the secret knowledge held by the Great Masters is not revealed. If it were to be revealed you would soon find yourselves in a much worse condition than you are now because the world powers would use these laws for their own benefit.

Everything has its positive and negative side. Atomic power, for instance can be used for good, but it can also be used for evil, so it is very dangerous in the hands of individuals or groups who are, apt to use it in this way. There are other things, which if they were known would be much more dangerous in the hands of these people, yet, on the other hand, they can be the greatest boon that man has ever had. This is the trouble. Unless you build a civilization upon a spiritual foundation it cannot stand. Your Master Jesus emphasized this greatly. You have depleted your Earth, wasted its resources ruthlessly, and therefore Mother Nature will react also. I do not wish to put fear in your hearts, but you asked a question and I am giving you the truth as I know it. This should not frighten you for your Earth has gone through this cleansing time after time. One civilization after another has arisen with the same problems. So you see it is not anything new. The Earth has to cleanse itself and it will.

Questioner: Are the same people experiencing this again and again?

Yaum: Mostly, yes. What you don't realize is that you take a very narrow view of time. Man of Earth usually thinks of time in terms of a lifetime or a few years, but a lifetime, in the real progression of time, is like a grain of sand upon the beach. Many have outgrown these things and gone on to other realms, but many have not, and that will be the case this time. Many will go on into the New Age when it is developed. It is not going to happen overnight, of course.

As we have explained to you many times, it will be different this time than it was before, in that the new civilization will be built upon a better foundation. There are enough people now who have advanced to the point where they will be able to do this, and of course, your plane will be exposed to entirely new vibrations in the New Age, which will have an entirely different effect upon Man. He will be more advanced and possess a greater brain capacity, and will have a body of a finer vibration, so it will be much different for those who are able to move on with the planet. And those who do move on into the New Age will be those who qualify spiritually to do so.

It will make no difference whether you are living in the physical or the astral plane at that time, as it will be determined by the spiritual development of the individual. You will be entering a new area in space where you will be exposed to different vibrations which will necessitate a change in man himself. Most of those upon your planet will not be able to go with it into the New Age because they have not developed to that point. This does not mean they are completely lost or anything like that. They will be taken care of and have their chance to eventually grow into a new life, too.

Questioner: How long will it be before all this takes place?

Yaum: This will depend upon certain circumstances which might hasten or delay it somewhat. I would not want to set any date for it, but it will not be too many years for it is shaping up now. If you study closely the events which are taking place upon your planet you will see this. There is really not any progress being made so far as bringing about peace is concerned. The attempts are not accomplishing anything. It is all talk, for the actions underneath do not match the words that are spoken.

Now, my friends, I think I have stayed my time. It has been my pleasure to spend this time with you. If I have been of any help to you, I am happy. I only express my understanding, and if it does not seem right to you, then do not accept it. We only try to share.

May the Love, the Peace, and the Joy of all the Great Ones be bestowed upon each of you this night, and as you celebrate the birth of your Great Master, may each of you find the Christ has been born in your hearts.

Go in Peace, my friends. Go in Peace, Peace. ☸
