Oxal: Greetings in the light, my friends, I am Oxal.

Once more, my friends, tension increases upon your planet. Once more the peoples are finding that fears are rising in their hearts, fear of disaster that may befall them. We are attempting, and believe that we can again, help your people to avoid great chaos, conflict between your great powers, for we shall not like this to happen. But this is not to say that it cannot.

To speak in your terms, I am going to let you in upon, shall we say, one of our minor attempts to help avoid this conflict. We have brought about in the mind of your president, Kennedy—also Mr. Khrushchev, and a few that are in power behind them—a vision of the results of such a conflict. This, they do not understand—to them it was only what you call a nightmare—but it did leave an impression and its fear in their hearts. It has given them something that they will ponder upon through many sleepless nights. We caused this to be brought about, but this they will not speak of to anyone else, but never the less, it has left its mark.

But the real thing that we are attempting to do is to bring a realization into the hearts of the people, a realization that an understanding must come about among your peoples, your civilizations, and this is taking root in the hearts of many.

We are aware at all times of what is going on in the lives of each of you. Records are kept, and this realization for the need of understanding is taking root among the people of Earth—and I think this was brought out greatly in the coming together of the two in this household and one from a far off land, for they found that in communicating with this one from far off, that he too, realized the importance of this and was attempting in his way, to promote among his people the desire and the realization for the necessity of understanding among all peoples. It is the sincere duty of everyone who is interested in the welfare of mankind upon your planet, to do everything in his or her power to promote an understanding among all mankind. There are many, many ways that you can do this, and only in this way and through the people, not your leaders, that a Brotherhood of Man, an understanding of mankind, will come about.

As your communication systems and your transportation systems improve, you shall find greater and greater opportunities to do your part this way, to show your willingness to greet in love, your fellow man from far off places. And as this consciousness increases upon your planet, it shall reach out into the cosmos, and you shall find yourselves greeting and extending your love and your understanding to those from beyond, and you will find them coming to you in greater numbers, extending the hand of friendship, the hand of help and opportunity to grow, as your peoples have never grown before.

Does this sound worthwhile to you, people of Earth?

Questioner: Yes.

Oxal: Then I say to you, go forth, extending a hand of friendship, a loving hand of help to all that you meet. Show that you are willing and ready to understand your fellow being.

I leave you by extending to you the very greatest love and understanding that our people can conceive of.

I am Oxal ☸
