Anthon: Peace be with thee, my friends. Greetings and love I extend to each of thee. I am Anthon. I often feel that I am a permanent part of this gathering, for seldom do you gather, that I am not with thee. I have come tonight to speak only for a moment, that ye might understand what we are bringing to thee. For in a moment, my beloved friends, we are going to bring to speak to you, a man who is in physical body upon your planet today and has for many years dwelt upon your planet. He is from one of the Mystic Schools located upon your planet in what would be considered, I think by you, the Far East, but today he is moving among mankind and carrying on a great work. In a moment, you shall hear the voice of Yaum.

(Pause)

Yaum: Greetings to you, my beloved friends. I want to thank you for the opportunity of coming into your household tonight and coming among you. I hope I shall be welcome. Is this so, my friends?

Questioner: Yes. Thank you.

I have been a teacher in one of the Mystic Schools upon your planet Earth for many years. About a year ago or perhaps a little more, it was my duty to leave the school and move out among Earth man, to attempt to help him raise the consciousness of mankind upon planet Earth. I hope you will excuse my English, because I am not too, what you say, familiar with your language.

Today, my friends, a great push, I believe you would call it, is being put forth by the Masters who are upon your planet, and those who are working from many other levels in the Etheric, I believe you call it, and those who are dwelling upon the higher evolved planets. It is very necessary at this time, that this be done in order that planet Earth might be prepared to move into its new location in space along with the balance of your solar system.

Negativity, hatred, greed and lust have gained such a foothold in your civilization that it has set up a great field of negativity around your planet. This my friends, must be dissipated. We who are attempting to do this, need much help, and you, my friends, and the other light workers of planet Earth, can be of great assistance to we who are working in this endeavor. You can do this, my friends, by spreading love and understanding as you go about your daily tasks, and you can also help us very much if during your meditation, you will send to us your love and your light. This, my friends, we will appreciate very much, and you will also be doing a great amount of good for yourself. In this year of 1960, a great deal of accomplishment must be made and all of those of us who are working in the light, are putting forth every effort to accomplish this. We hope that all of the light workers upon planet Earth will also do their part.

It is my understanding that you have just established a group which you are calling understanding. This, my friends, is good and we have high hopes that this group of understanding, as a world group, will grow and bring people together in understanding. Now, I must say that this is very good, but unless you actually work at spreading understanding, it will not avail you very much. Just using the name is not enough, we must spread understanding. We must work at bringing understanding to Earth people. We must attempt to understand our neighbors, our friends and those with whom we come in contact. We must demonstrate understanding. We must be understanding. It is not enough, my friends, to speak of understanding. We must be understanding. We must attempt to understand those about us, and, friends, let us start with those who are close at hand, and then let us see that this understanding spreads.

You see, my friends, the great weakness of the people of planet Earth over the centuries has been that they do a great deal of talking. They speak much of their religions and of the things that bring love and understanding, but that, my friends, is as far as it goes. But we have passed the stage of talking. Now, my friends, it is time that we demonstrate or do that of which we speak so much. Man, in general, uses his vocal system much too much, and he does not use his eyes and his ears enough. Man of Earth must start doing and thinking. Now he must use and exercise the brain which his creator so graciously gave to him. I hope, my friends, that each of you will work sincerely at understanding. This word encompasses much. Think about it and then attempt to understand. Until understanding is accomplished by Earth man, he shall not live in Peace.

I am told, my friends, that I have stayed my time, therefore, I shall leave you now. I want to thank you again for having me in your midst, for accepting me into your home. I understand this is the home of the instrument through which I speak. Is this not so my friends?

Questioner: Yes.

Yaum: Thank you. I hope I shall have the pleasure of speaking with you again. It has been my pleasure, and friends, I hope you each shall gain great understanding.

My blessings to you and may the Peace of the infinite one rest in the hearts of each of you, now and ever more.

Goodnight, my friends, goodnight. ☸
